

Executive Profile

Bradley C. Richardson
Executive Vice President, Corporate Strategy
and Chief Financial Officer

Bradley C. Richardson was named Executive Vice President, Corporate Strategy and Chief Financial Officer in March 2008. Mr. Richardson, who joined Modine in May 2003 has a strong background in finance, operations, strategic planning, and business development.

Prior to joining Modine, Mr. Richardson spent more than twenty years in a variety of financial and operational positions at BP Amoco. In his last position at BP Amoco, he served as Chief Financial Officer and Vice President of Performance Management and Control for BP Amoco's Worldwide Exploration and Production division, where he was responsible for group forecasting, long-term planning, investor relations and financial control. He was previously the President for BP Amoco's business in Venezuela where he led the combination of the BP Amoco and Arco businesses. In the mid-1990's, Mr. Richardson served as BP Amoco's Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer for Amoco Energy Group, North America. In that position he led the financial function and was instrumental in the significant restructuring of North American operations. His other experiences include a variety of both line and corporate positions including treasury, control, performance reporting and analysis, acquisitions/divestments, and strategic planning.

Mr. Richardson is a member of the Board of Directors for both Tronox Inc. and Brady Corporation.

Born in 1958, Mr. Richardson was reared in Dayton, Ohio. He earned his bachelor's degree in Economics and Finance from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. He received his master's degree in Accounting and Finance from Indiana University and holds a certified public accountant's certificate in Illinois.